OFFICES

RIVERSIDE HOUSE, WOOLWICH

Frederick Thomas Electrical & Maintenance Limited were pleased to be awarded this prestigious electrical refurbishment contract for The London Borough of Greenwich at their Public Service Centre located in Riverside House, Woolwich.

The initial works comprised refurbishment to 2 floors of the existing offices. During this stage of the contract the Client negotiated work to a further 3 floors followed by a new extension and link bridge to the adjoining offices together with the alterations and updating of various floors in this building.

The work was carried out whilst sections of the buildings remained occupied leading to complicated phased programmes and handovers.

The total cost of the electrical works was in the region of £1.25m with an electrical programme of 69 weeks.

Due to the success of the projects, Frederick Thomas Electrical & Maintenance Limited were subsequently awarded further associated contracts, including full design, valued at approximately £625,000.
