BLACKFEN LIBRARY

As approved contractors for Bexley Council, Frederick Thomas Electrical & Maintenance Limited undertook the electrical and ancillary works associated with this library project as a nominated sub-contractor to the main contractor.

The works comprised of the conversion of two high street retail units into a new library. The works were carried out to a high specification and this was reflected in the quality of equipment fitted and the high standard of the works in general.

Due to our performance on this contract we have strengthened our relationship with Bexley Council and the main contractor for the project.

All works were tested, inspected and certified to NICEIC standards.
